CONFIDENTIALITY

The confidentiality of the work we do together is upheld at all times and I will only consult with other professionals with your direct consent. There are, however, certain limitations to this confidentiality:

1. I must report to the proper authorities if I suspect that child or elder abuse has occurred.
2. I must report to the proper authorities if I believe you or your dependent is a danger to self or others, or if you or your dependent is in danger of being harmed.
3. I will release your name, identifying information, how to reach you, and amount owed if it becomes necessary to contact an attorney or collection agency about an unpaid bill.
4. Our communications are privileged unless your mental status is an issue for the court or if a judge feels communications are necessary to properly administer justice.

I acknowledge that I have received, read, and agree to these policies:
